

LIBRARY POLICY

Policy Title: COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

Date of Last Review:

Policy Type: Board - Operational

Approved by Library Board: April 2021

Policy Number: BPL020

Introduction

The purpose of this policy is to clarify the criteria used for selecting and acquiring materials for Belleville Public Library's collection (the collection), as well as the responsibility for maintaining the collection.

This policy applies to all formats in the collection, including print, audio-visual and digital materials. This policy will apply to items purchased by the Library, or donated to the Library, including works donated by the author or creator of the item.

Guiding Principles

Belleville Public Library Board (the Library) strives to provide a dynamic collection of materials that is regularly evaluated and available in a variety of formats to serve the needs and support the interests of all members of our community.

The collection shall be balanced and represent diverse points of view and may include materials that some members of the public consider to be controversial in nature. The presence of an item in the library does not indicate an endorsement of its content.

The Library endorses the Ontario Library Association's Statement on Intellectual Freedom and the Intellectual Rights of the Individual (2020). (Appendix A)

The Library endeavors to provide equitable access to the collection and will provide opportunities for patrons and community groups to recommend or request items for the collection.

The Library selects materials in the two official languages, English and French, as well as materials which reflect the diverse linguistic or cultural heritage of the community.

The materials budget will be maximized through coordinated and controlled expenditure and will be monitored closely to ensure budget targets are met. Collection purchases will be made throughout the year and not concentrated in one quarter.

Selection of Materials

The Library Board delegates the overall responsibility for the collection to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Selection responsibility for specific portions of the collections will be delegated to staff.

In selecting materials, staff will use their professional resources, judgment, knowledge and experience. Selection will be founded on staff familiarity with existing collections, their awareness of the needs of Library users, and their knowledge of current and future trends in informational and recreational materials suitable for public library use.

The Library will make the final decision about what to order for the collection, how many copies of a given title will be ordered, and which formats will be purchased.

What is ordered, and what remains in the collections, is based on the following criteria:

- a. recommendations by critics or reviewers
- b. public demand
- c. relationship of subject to existing collection
- d. importance of subject matter in relation to community needs
- e. authority or significance of author
- f. quality of writing, production and illustrations
- g. accessibility criteria and features
- h. authority and standards of publisher
- i. suitability of format for library use
- j. Canadian content

The Library does not keep, acquire or purchase material that the Canadian courts have found to be obscene, hate propaganda or seditious.

Special consideration is given to materials with Canadian content, that record the Canadian experience or that relate to life in Canada or the lives and works of Canadians.

We will provide collections relating to Indigenous cultures, languages, and peoples, including books, audio and video materials. Our collection will include titles by and about First Nation communities. Specific attention will be paid to the Huron-Wendat, the Anishinaabe, and the Haudenosaunee people on whose traditional homeland the Library is located.

Patron Requests

There will be a process in place for patrons to suggest or request items for purchase for the collection. All Collection Material Purchase Suggestion forms (Appendix B) are reviewed by Library staff who will apply to the customer request the same selection criteria that are applied to all materials purchased by the Library.

Accessible Formats

There will be a feedback process in place to allow patrons to request accessible items for the collection (Appendix B). The Library will provide access to a collection of accessible materials that serve the needs of individuals with visual or print disabilities. If requested, the Library will assist patrons to access the broad collection of accessible works available from the Centre for Equitable Library Access.

Collection Maintenance

In order to maintain a current and relevant collection, it is necessary to withdraw materials from the library collections regularly and systematically. The following criteria are considered when withdrawing materials:

- Accuracy
- Timeliness
- Physical condition
- Frequency of use
- Availability of other copies
- Relevance to needs and interests of the community

If still needed, items may be replaced or rebound. Replacement depends on the demand for the title, the availability of more current materials on the topic and the extent of the coverage of the subject in the collection.

Withdrawn material will be donated to the Friends of the Belleville Public Library (FOL) for sale in their Bookstore. Items that are not accepted or sold by the FOL may be sold at a Library book sale or donated to other community groups. When all other options have been exhausted, discarded books will be placed into recycling.

Parental Responsibility

Responsibility for a child's or teen's choice and use of materials rests with their parent(s) or legal guardian(s). The Library believes in the freedom of the individual, and that parents or legal guardians must interpret and maintain their own standards for what items are borrowed from the Library.

Library users of all ages have open access to the Library's collections. Selection for the adult collection is not restricted by the possibility that children or teens may access materials their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) may consider inappropriate.

Controversial Material

The Belleville Public Library Board regards the right of access by an individual to information, controversial or non-controversial, through the public library as an important element of a democratic society.

The presence of any material in the Library does not indicate an endorsement of its contents. The Library recognizes that many materials are controversial and that any given item may offend some patrons. In the case of controversial issues, an effort is made to see that all points of view are represented.

While library staff will attempt to guide individuals and groups to materials suitable for their use, the ultimate responsibility for the choice made by the patron lies with the patron and/or their parent(s) or guardian(s).

Request for reconsideration of material must be made in writing and on the understanding that selection will not be determined by pressure from any group or individual nor will material serving the purpose of the Library be removed from the collection. Completed Request for Reconsideration of an Item in the Collection forms (Appendix C) are forwarded to the CEO for review. Acknowledgement of the request will be sent within 5 business days and a written response will be sent within 30 days.

If the patron is still not satisfied, a written request for the review to be appealed will be forwarded to the Library Board for their consideration at the next scheduled Board meeting. The Library Board and the CEO will jointly rule on the appeal and report the decision to the complainant within 30 days of the meeting.

Labeling of Collections

The Library does not label materials to indicate approval or disapproval of the content.

Closed Shelves

No catalogued book or other item will be placed on closed shelves, except due to space limitations or to protect it from damage or theft.

Appendix A: Ontario Library Association Statement on Intellectual Freedom and the Intellectual Rights of the Individual

Introduction

The Ontario Library Association and its divisions are committed to the fundamental rights of intellectual freedom, the freedom to read and freedom of the press, as embodied in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Ontario Libraries have the important responsibility to facilitate expressions of knowledge, creativity, ideas, and opinion, even when viewed as unconventional or unpopular.

The Ontario Library Association declares its acceptance of the following principles for libraries:

1. Equitable access to library service to the public is based upon the right of the citizen, under the protection of the law, to judge individually on questions of politics, religion and morality.
2. Intellectual freedom requires freedom to critically examine and create other ideas, opinions, views, and philosophy of life, other than those currently approved by the local community or by society in general and including those ideas and interpretations which may be unconventional, uncommon or unpopular.
3. The free traffic in ideas and opinions is essential to the health and growth of a free society and that the freedom to read, listen, view, and create is fundamental to such free traffic.
4. Library governance ensures that the principles of intellectual freedom and expression of thought are upheld.

Library Service, Collections and Resources:

It is the responsibility of libraries to maintain the right of intellectual freedom and to implement it consistently in the selection of books, periodicals, films, recordings, and other materials including the provision of access to electronic sources of information and access to the internet. Materials are not excluded from library collections based on race, place of birth, origin, ethnic origin, ethnicity, citizenship, age, creed, disability, family structure, sex, and sexual orientation.

It is part of the library's service to its public to resist any attempt by any individual or group within the community it serves to abrogate, censor or curtail access to information, the freedom to read, view, listen or participate by demanding the removal of, or restrictions to library information sources in any format.

Library Programming, Events, and Space Bookings

It is the responsibility of libraries to maintain the right of intellectual freedom and expression by implementing it consistently when hosting programs and events within the public space of the library including rented public space by individuals and community organizations.

Libraries create welcoming community spaces where community members are free from discrimination and may engage in peaceful assembly. Libraries may cancel or deny permits to individuals or organizations when speech or displays are used in a way that is unlawful.

Applicable legislation:

Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms: Section 2(b) of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms protects “freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression, including freedom of the press and other media of communication”.

Criminal Code: Section 63 pertains to Unlawful Assemblies and Riots. Section 297 pertains to defamatory libel. Section 318 pertains to hate propaganda.

Ontario Human Rights Code: Sub-section 13 pertains to infringing on freedom from discrimination.
